

Subject Specific Vocabulary

county	several towns and the rural areas that surround them
North-East	a compass point
Tyne and Wear	our local county diversity	differences amongst groups of people data	information that can be collected or analysed economic	how the area gains wealth and money density	the number of things in a particular area environments	the surroundings a living thing finds themselves in satellite photographs	a photo taken from a satellite in space
land use	how the land is used for different purposes
census	how the government counts its people
co-ordinates	a set of numbers or numbers and letters together that show you where places are on a map
North- West	a compass point
South- East	a compass point
South- West	a compass point
Choropleth Map	a map that shows specific data in colours

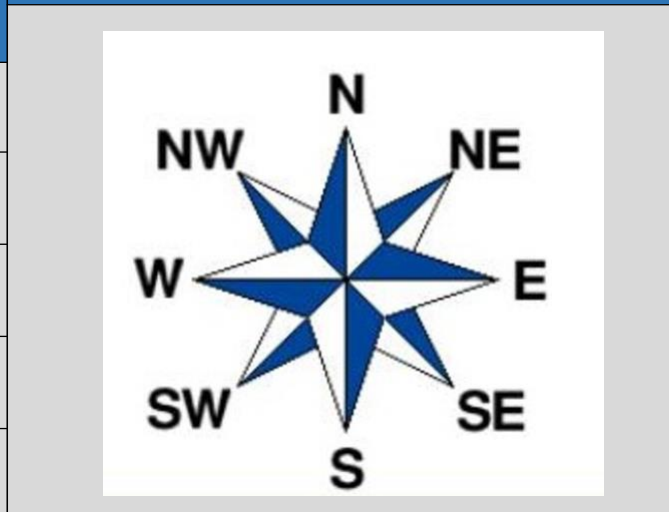

Human Features in Sunderland

The Stadium of Light
The Winter Gardens
Roker Pier
Penshaw Monument
Souter Lighthouse

Physical Features in Sunderland

Herrington Country Park
River Wear
Tunstall Hills
Seaburn Beach
Seaham Beach

The eight points on a compass

Key knowledge

I know that Sunderland is a city made up of towns and villages.
I know that Sunderland is located on the North-East coast in the county of Tyne and Wear.
I know some human features of Sunderland.
I know some physical features of Sunderland.
I know that Sunderland is an economically diverse city.
I know that population density varies in Sunderland.
I know why some people live in certain areas of Sunderland.

Did you know?

Sunderland has a population of around 345,000 people.
There are around 25 members of Parliament working in Sunderland.
97.5% of people in Sunderland speak English.